

Ask me Anything Series - Webinar on “Thriving as a Data Information Professional”

Question list for session

2019-10-23

(Please create a subject heading if you do not already see one for your question)

Professional Identity

1. What does it mean to have the role and responsibilities of a “Data Information Professional”? Both to yourselves and when you have to explain to others?

Getting this kind of a job

1. Did you feel that you were prepared for this type of work when you started your job and if not, where did you go for help and support

Scoping this type of job

1. Sometimes these job descriptions are broad, is there any advice on scoping the actual work?

Professional development

1. What suggested trainings, workshops, conferences are most beneficial for continuing to grow of skills and knowledge as a data information professional?

Relationships and stakeholders

1. How have you strengthened relationships to key offices such as the Office of Research and Office of Compliance, and if yes, how?

Data Management Plans

1. How often are you able to see the data management plan translated into action
2. What has been the most challenging type of data to describe in a data management plan
3. What do you do if your institution does not provide the necessary support for a particular type of data
4. What have been experiences in collaborating with the Office of Research on DMPs? Is this recommended?

Invited Experts

1. Megan Sapp Nelson - Purdue University ACRL RDM Roadshow
2. Jon Wheeler - University of New Mexico RDAP Ed Committee
3. Christie Ann Wiley - University of Illinois RDAP Ed Committee
4. Wendy Mann - George Mason U. ACRL - DSS - ResearchDataQ editorial Board
5. Lynda Kellam CISER at Cornell University ACRL - DSS - ResearchDataQ editorial Board