

Best Practices for Research Data Services:

Practices and Opportunities at the University of Cincinnati

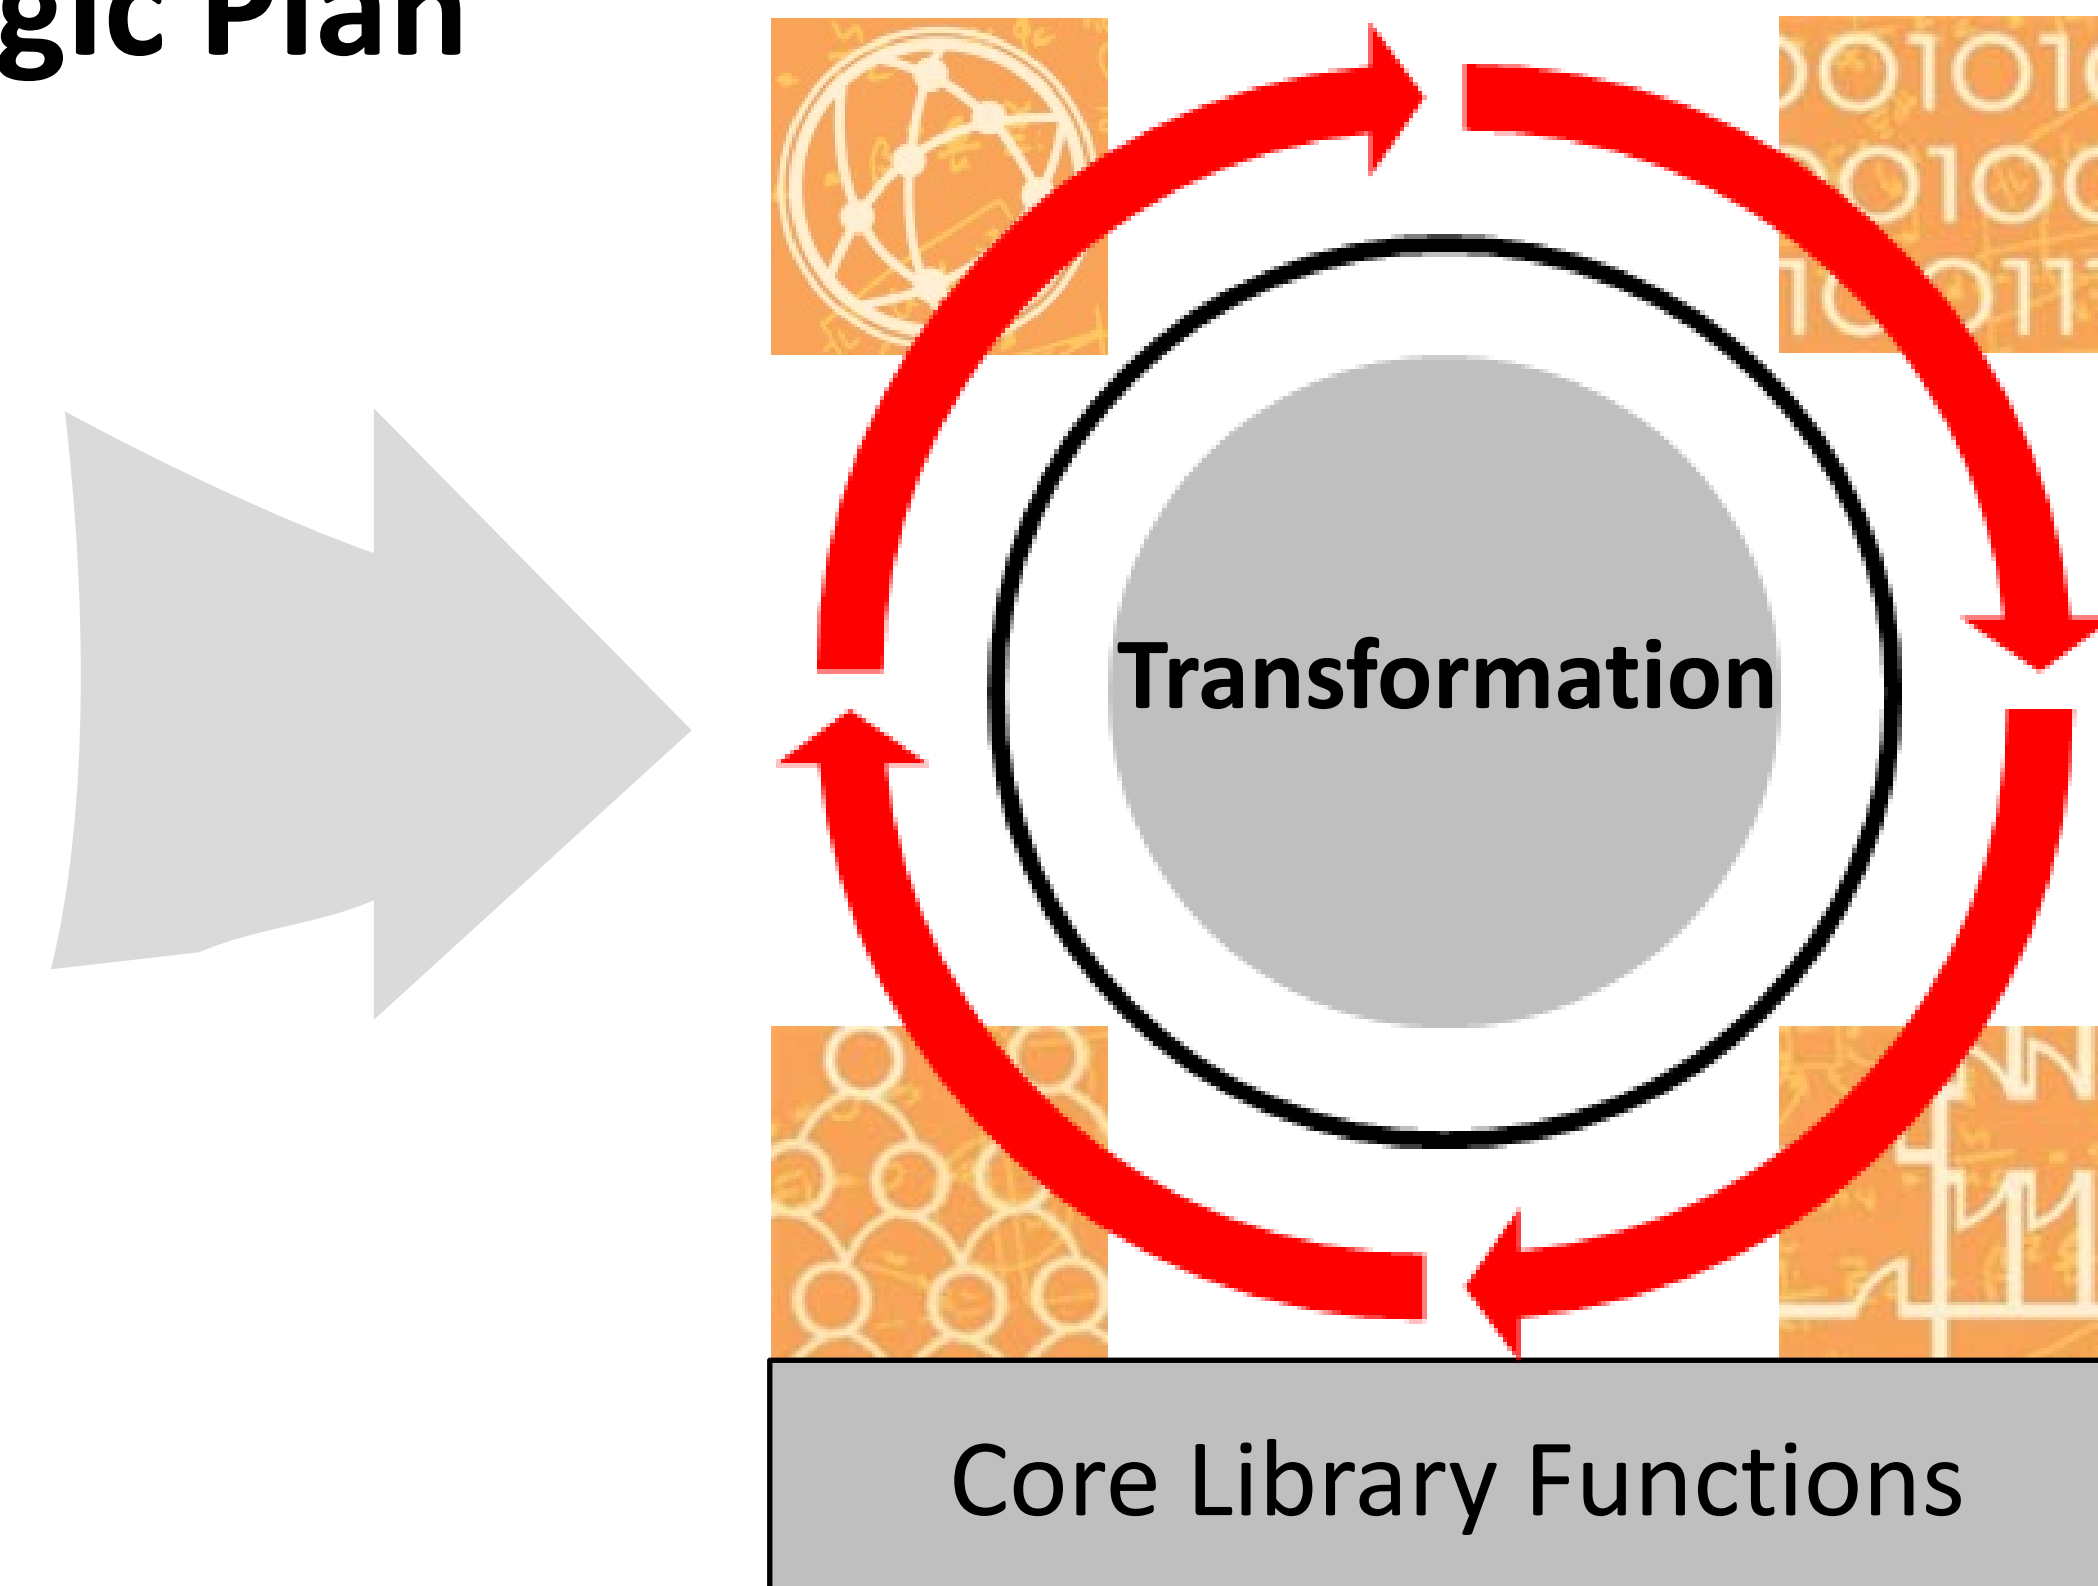

Amy Koshoffer¹, Tiffany Grant² and Don Jason³

Science Informationist¹, Research Informationist², Clinical Informationist³

Transformations @ UC Libraries: Applying Institutional Best Practices to UC Current Practices

Pillars of UC Libraries' Strategic Plan

- People
- Data to Information to Knowledge
- Space
- Digital technologies & innovations

	Central Research Hub	▶ In Progress
	Clear Data Policy	▶ UC Policy # 10/10-43-18
	Modern Infrastructure	▶ NSF Grant 100 Gb internet
	Data Registry	▶ Not planned
	Institutional Repository	▶ Scholar@UC - June 2015
	Data Literacy Program	▶ Engaging Stakeholders
	Measures of Success	▶ Per program

Opportunities for UC Libraries and Informationists:

Data Services Group

Reference:
Grant T. and Koshoffer A.,
Research Data Management at Academic Research Institutions: An Evaluation of Best Practices and a Comparative Assessment of Practices and Opportunities at the University of Cincinnati.

(University of Cincinnati White paper 2014)

Awareness of Tools & Services

Community Engagement

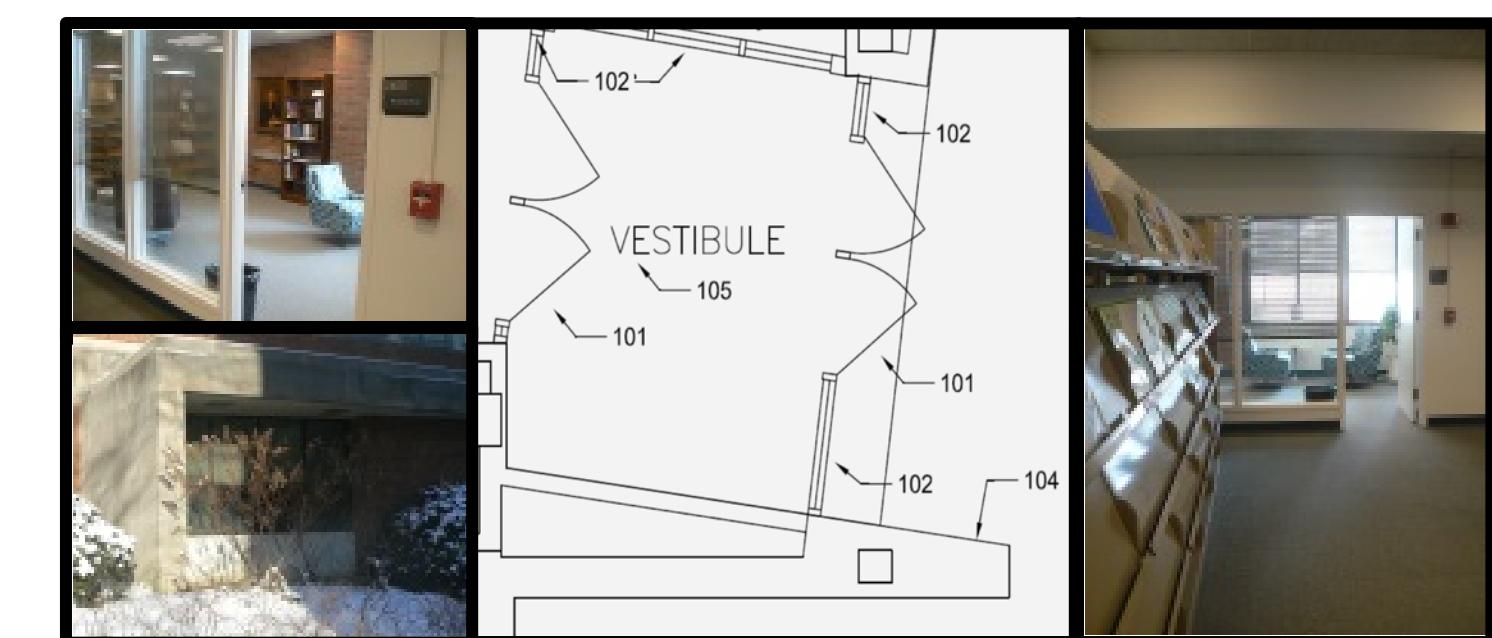

Grants and Outside Funding

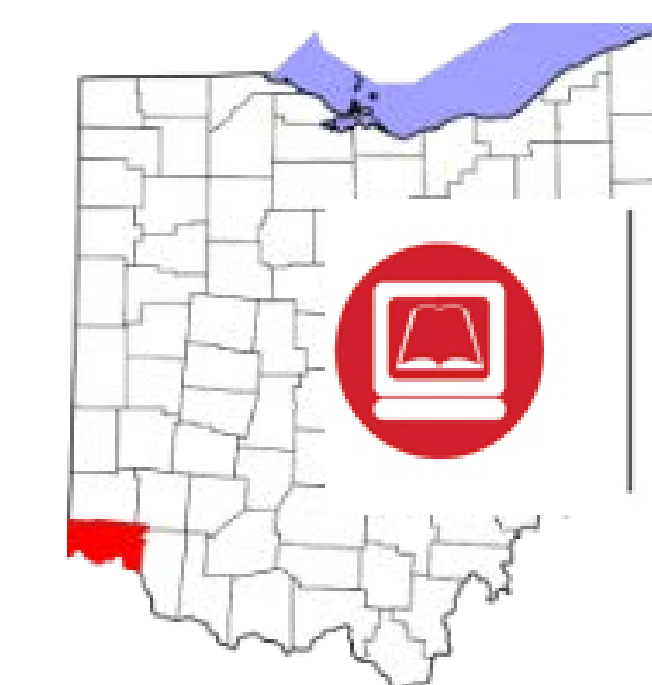

Data

- Management
- Organization
- Analysis
- Visualization
- Preservation
- Sharing

Data Literacy program

Evaluating Space

OhioLINK
Ohio's Academic Library Consortium
An OH-TECH Consortium Member

Leadership Areas