HISTORY.

Alberts mother deserted him a few weeks ago; he was taken to the Childrens Home, where he stayed about 2 weeks. He says that his mother lives at 294 Longworth St. with a Mrs. Johnson. Is quite an intelligent and bright little fellow.

September 27th " 1883. The boys mother, Mrs. Luella Cracraft called today and made the following statement;

"My son Albert was at the Childrens Home about 2 wks. I put him there until I could get a situation. A Mrs. Johnson, living at 284 Longworth St. offered to take the boy and pay me $2.00 a week — she wanted him to run errands for her. A few weeks ago she began to dislike the boy, and finally she discharged him. Mrs. Johnson accused the boy of having stolen 20 cents from her, which he denied. I then took the boy to Mrs. Rutlege, — #30 Lockstreet Terrace —. Mrs Johnson his former employer got him from Mrs. Rutlege and took him to the Central Station. The next day - 19th Sept - she had him sent out here, representing to Officer Jos. L. Smith that the child was homeless. The wole affair is due to malice on the part of Mrs. Johnson."

Mrs. Cracraft then applied for the release of Albert.

October 3rd " Referred to Committee of month with power to act

THREE JUVENILE THIEVES. Enquirer 1888

A Youngster Caught In the Act of Tapping a Till.

For some time past John H. Scheive, a coal dealer at 331 Main street, has been missing small sums of money from his cash drawer.

Suspecting that the pilfering was being done by small boys of the neighborhood, he last evening lay in wait for the juvenile thieves. About 6:30 o'clock Scheive was rewarded for his vigilance by seeing a youngster, who later proved to be Harry West, aged thirteen years, of 79 Aibgail street, enter the place and proceed to "touch" the till. Springing from his place of concealment, Scheive nabbed the young thief and held him until the arrival of the police.

At the station young West, who was locked up for petit larceny, stated that his partners in crime were Ed and Walter Thompson, aged respectively eleven and fourteen years, of 337 Main street. The Thompson brothers were accordingly arrested, and also charged with larceny.

ANDREW BOATZ was arrested yesterday by Officers Brinly and Erb on a charge of shooting with intent to kill. Boatz had been boarding with an aunt, Mrs. Strunk, on East Canal street, but had been uncertemoniously bounced. A fellow workman of Boatz's secured board at the house, and Thursday evening about 10 o'clock Boatz called around to let the jolks know that he was alive. He began by calling for Mrs. Strunk. As soon as she opened the door Boatz let drive with his revolver, putting a hole through the edge of the door and narrowly missing the person of Mrs. Strunk. The door was quickly shut, and the young man amused himself by firing a ball through the transom and lodging it in the ceiling. He then went around to the rear of the house and fired two more shots through the back door. Officers Conboy and Millspaugh heard the shots and went in pursuit. Conboy saw Boatz in the alley and gave chase, but the fellow turned around and fired the re-

YOUTHFUL THIEVES.

A Raid By Four Small Boys on a Main-Street Store.

Four young thieves made a raid on the hardware store of Weber & Co., No. 360 Main street, yesterday about noon, effecting an entrance through a rear window. With a "scraper" they opened the money-drawer, and secured about $12. At the matinee of the Vine-street Opera-house in the afternoon a stamp with Weber & Co.'s name fell from the gallery. The watchman, Mike Arnold, picked it up and started for the gallery. Three young boys made a break for the door. All escaped except John Thompson. He was arrested and placed behind the bars at Central Statin on the charge of petit larceny. On his person was found nearly $5. He admitted the robbery, and implicated three other boys, among them Harry West. Shortly after seven o'clock in the evening West's mother came into the station-house and surrendered her son. He was locked up as an accomplice of Thompson. West had a little over $2 in cash and some small articles he had purchased. Thompson, who is only eleven years old, also implicates his younger brother, and says that West's younger brother completed the party. Thompson has been out to the House of Refuge.

About 8:30 p. m. Mrs. West came into the station-house with her younger son. He was also locked up.

A Thieving Boy.

Yesterday afternoon Dr. Frank Sage, living at 139 Garfield Place, employed a boy living on Sycamore street, name unknown, to shovel a load of coal. The boy took advantage of this excellent opportunity to slip into a back room and take a jewel case containing a set of sapphire studs belonging to T. Z. Flagg, a clerk employed at the Globe Company, of West Sixth street.

A Dishonest Coal-Heaver.

Day before yesterday Dr. Frank Sage, a dentist, whose office is situated at No. 139 Garfield Place, hired a boy giving the name of George Thompson to put a load of coal into his cellar. The boy was obliged to carry the black diamonds through a hallway, and thus obtained free access to the house. On one of his trips he dropped into a room occupied by a young gentleman named E. Z. Blagg and stole a jewel case containing a sapphire set valued at $75. The loss was reported to the police, and the young thief will be shortly arrested. Thompson is sixteen years of age, and resides with his parents at No. 276 Sycamore street.

He Goes Back to the Ref.

George Thompson, the lad who took the contract for shoveling a load of coal and then stole a jewel box at 139 Garfield Place, was arrested this morning at his home, 277 Sycamore street. The box was mashed in and a few papers and a solid gold pin abstracted. George is a paroled House of Refuge boy and will be taken back there to-day.

HISTORY.

Theodore says that his father beat him for not finding work, and that he (Theod) ran away from home several times in consequence. He slept in a cellar a few nights, to avoid being maltreated by his father, as he says. He states that for this reason his father sent him out here. He is not a boy that can be believed in all that he says.

Sep. 28. The boy says that 2 years ago his mother ran away with another man from his father, and that his father has treated him worse since that time.

April 3/884. Mother called says she is divorced from Mr. Hart and that the court gave their little girl to her and the boy (4912) to his father. and that the father was married again a few weeks ago. and she also was married a few weeks ago and is now moving to Columbus Ohio. #133. HISTORY.

Fred says that his mother told him to get work soon, or she would send him out to the house of refuge; he succeeded in getting a situation as Wiener-wurst peddler - but his mother would not allow him to follow this calling. He has a reckless, careless air about him, but does not seem to be a bad boy.

Dec 29th 1883 The following (copy) letter was recd by Mr Marks from Mother of above boy.

Cin Ohio 1883

Mr Marks

Dear Sir

You promised to let me Know about my son Fred Schmeh or No 4916, Please let me Know how he behaves, Please do not give out of your hands until I apply for him I heard that his father wanted to come out & get him & leave the City with him, I wish that you would please give Fredie a good lecture not to go with his father, I had to make the living for him ever since he was three years old, Before I see him on his fathers hands. I would sooner leave him out there until he is 21 years old. I applied for a divorce, & that is the reason Fredies father wants to get him to be against me on the count. Please let me know how it is with Fredie

REFUGE DIRECTORS.

Enquirer Feby 27/85

A Bad Boy Who Defies the House Officials.

The Board of Directors of the House of Refuge met in regular monthly session yesterday afternoon at the institution, with all the members present except the President, R. A. Holden, who is ill. Mr. Webb occupied the chair.

In connection with the numberless applications for release, it may be said that none presented any features of unusual interest. In one instance mother, daughter and son applied for the release of a third child, and gained their point. Another case was that of a boy who was discharged some time ago, and who, since that time, has been giving his widowed mother and two sisters an unlimited amount of trouble. His elder sister appeared before the board to request that something be done with him. He refused absolutely to do any work, and defied them to send him back to the Refuge, the officials of which, he boasted, were afraid of him. He will be given an opportunity to prove this, as, on Mr. Champion's motion, he will be recalled forthwith, and detained to await the action of the committee. If his relatives will cease to pet the youngster and will leave him severely alone the House officials may be able to persuade him that he is doing wrong.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE ENQUIRER.

SPRINGFIELD, OHIO, February 20.—Mr. Abraham Slayman, an old resident of this city, and at one time of Dayton, died to-day. The remains of James Wise were brought here to-day from Lebanon, Ohio, where he died yesterday. He was formerly a student of Wittenberg College and of the Lebanon Normal School.

A post-mortem examination was made in the case of Alex. Paget, the suicide, to-day. The floor of the skull was found to be fractured. Bony growths were found in the membranes of the brain, and it is supposed irritation caused by them produced Paget's suicide.

HISTORY.

Anna in company with 4924 and 4925 left their homes in Springfield Ohio to come to this City walking all the way. Excepting a few miles out of the city when the got into a Farmers wagon and rode into the City. The farmer reported to Police Head quarters with the girls and they were sent to the Home of the Friendless. After remaining only a short time they were committed to the Refuge. Their Conduct while at the Home was not good. Their object in coming to Cincinnati was to lead a fast life. From what could be learned of ther parentage shows them to be of a ~~shiftless~~ Shiftless Nature.

March 21/84. Anna slipped out of the Sewing room about 6-30 Oclock this evening. and with 4579. escaped through the back Parlor window.

April. 21/884. Mr. Costello after several days hard work found Anna at New Hampshire Ohio (a small town about 12 miles from Wapakoneta O.) and brought her back this evening.

HISTORY.

Willie is a rather nice looking boy says he lived with his Step Father George Werner at No 139 Clark St City and that he treated him badly would hit him in the face with his fist and for that reason he would not stay at at home. He went to the 9th St Station and asked to be sent to the House of Refuge. Willie tells a straight forward story and doubtless what he says is true.

November 2nd 1883. Williams Step Father George Werner Called to day and stated that the boy had a good home tho he had treated him well, that his statement to the Contrary was not true. That he had sent William to work and for a week or more he never reported for work, but spent his time on the streets doing nothing. And in many other ways gave him trouble and he was always willing to do as much for him as his circumstances would allow.

HISTORY.

Charles is both deaf & dumb. was committed here upon complaint of his father as an incorrigible boy.

Major Oliver

This boy 4946 was throwing stones on first division yards. It is true that the children tease him whenever they get a chance. He looks upon their ordinary efforts to play with him as teasing. He is a very ill-tempered boy. It is said by the children that he can hear well enough, and can speak and does speak on yard. They might interpret some of his noises to mean words. It is my opinion he is a fraud and that he can hear and speak well enough

Large Sale of West Virginia Lands.

The Busy Bee, Buchanan, W. Va., says:

"A. H. Winchester, who was one of the purchasers of the Rich lands, is a wide-awake business man. He already has seventy thousand acres of land in one body in Randolph County, West Virginia, on which he has built quite a little town which he calls Winchester. He has had a post-office established, and write. In due course of mail he received a commission as postmaster. The fact that capitalist like Mr. Winchester has taken hold of the Rich lands, looks as though the whole matter would be straightened up.

"George Bennett, Esq., as attorney for John B. Shreve, sold the half of all the land known as the Rich Survey, lying in Randolph, Webster and Upshur Counties, W. Va., to satisfy a judgment in the Circuit Court of Upshur County, in favor of John B. Shreve. This is probably the largest land sale ever made in this State to any one party. The deeds call for the undivided half of 710,310 acres. Mr. A. H. Winchester and Ethan Hutton became the purchasers of the half owned by Ben Rich, or 355,405 acres. This will be very beneficial to Upshur County, as nearly all the county on the east side of the river is included in this survey. These parties will now be able to settle these complicated matters in a satisfactory way, and end them for all time to come."

The woman, who gave her name as Margaret Davis, then told the following story: "For some time past my husband and self have lived at No. 404 West Ninth street. Several months ago he was taken sick with the dropsy, and being out of work and having no ready cash I was compelled to send him to the Cincinnati Hospital. He lingered until the 15th of October, when he died. I was notified by the Hospital authorities and I tried to raise money with which to bury him. I could not do it, and so informed Colonel Jones. He said that the city would bury the body, and when I got the money I could have it dug up and buried properly. I wrote to my son, who works at Walton, Ky., and he telegraphed me that he would come right on and bury the body. Before he arrived I went to the Hospital and told Colonel Jones, and he asked me to sign some paper. I could not read or write and I put my mark to it. When my son arrived we went to the Hospital and they told my son that I had signed the body over to the medical college. I was almost crazed when they told me this and protested that I had done nothing of the kind. They then showed my son the paper which I had signed, and it said that I had turned the body over to the medical college. My son turned on me and denounced me and I tried to convince him that I was innocent. He left me in a rage and returned to Walton, Ky. I was determined to have my husband's remains, and I secured a list of the medical colleges and visited them all. Among others I called at the Ohio Medical College, on Sixth street, and they said they knew nothing about the body. I then returned to the Hospital and demanded that they tell me where the body was, and I finally learned that it was at the Ohio Medical College. I returned there this morning, and they told me that the body had been in the dissecting room for two days. They say that I can not get the body, and I have come for your assistance in recovering it."

The woman's startling story was listened to attentively by Colonel Deitsch, and at its conclusion he summoned Officer Ackerstaff and ordered him to accompany the woman to the college and demand the remains.

The officer and the bereaved widow visited the place and saw Dr. Cilley. That gentleman acknowledged that the body of Davis was there, but that he had lawful possession of it. The officer returned to Colonel Deitsch with Dr. Cilley's answer. Turning to the woman Colonel Deitsch asked: "Madam, if you get the remains of your husband can you give them proper burial?" "I can," answered the woman. "Then, officer, I want you to go to the Ohio Medical College and demand the body from Dr. Cilley. If he refuses to turn it over to the widow let me know, and I will see what I can do in the premises." Colonel Deitsch spoke in a manner that carried the conviction that he wanted to see the widow's wrongs righted.

In half an hour Officer Ackerstaff returned with the statement by Dr. Cilley that if a coffin was sent to the college he would have the remains fixed up, and would then turn them over to the widow.

Mrs. Davis was seen regarding the paper alleged to have been signed by her at the Cincinnati Hospital, in which she agreed to turn the remains over to the medical college. She was positive in her statement that she signed the paper under a misapprehension of its contents, and that it was never read to her at any time.

Mrs. Davis is a respectable appearing woman, and she resides at present at No. 181 Race street. Her troubles have been so great that she seems to be well nigh crazy. Her only talk is about her dead husband, and her resolve to regain possession of the remains and give them proper burial. Her joy was so great when Colonel Deitsch informed her that the body would be turned over to her, that she could hardly contain herself.

Colonel Deitsch's prompt action in the matter is to be commended. The woman's statement that she signed the document transferring the body to the medical college without knowing its contents is a matter that needs to be ventilated. There is no doubt that such a paper is in the possession of the hospital authorities, and it is hardly probable that a woman such as Mrs. Davis appears to be would do a cold-blooded act of that kind when in her proper senses.

The son of the deceased will arrive in the city to-day, and the remains will be given proper burial.

HISTORY.

From Cincinnati Enquirer Dec. 21 1883.

Landwehr's Bad Boy.

A woman came into Central Station yesterday morning, accompanied by a man leading a small child. The woman asked Sergeant Rittweger how she would have to proceed to have the child committed to the House of Refuge. The Sergeant looked at the little mite of humanity and then at the woman. He finally asked the woman why she wanted the child sent to the House of Refuge, and she stated that it was so bad that she could not do any thing with it. The child's age she put at six years, but it is doubtful whether it was more than five years old at the most. She was informed that the House of Refuge was not built for such cases, and she left very much dissatisfied. She gave her name as Mrs. Landwehr, living at 177 Linn street.

The boy says he wanted to work at tobacco trade & his parents wanted him to go to learn the Bakers trade here, or go to school in the City which he would not do - appears to be bright, & communicative -

Taken from Enquirer Sunday Jan 20. 1884

A YOUNG boy name Frank Meyers was sent to the House of Refuge yesterday for incorrigibility. The lad was in the Police Court as a homeless child some weeks ago, and represented that his father and mother were both dead. Judge Fitzgerald, taking pity on the boy, who seemed to be a bright lad, conducted him to his home, and allowed him to remain there until one morning recently, when the boy's father turned up, and it was learned that the mother is also living. Both parents wanted the son sent to the Refuge.

Enquirer Jan 31/84.

Caught When the Sun Went Down.

About dark last evening Wm. Flynn, a lad thirteen years of age, was detected in the act of prying open a show-case in front of Freeman's perfumery establishment, on Fourth street. He was arrested and locked up at Central Station by Officer Smallwood on the charge of loitering. Flynn, although young, is a bad one. A few weeks ago he was arrested for stealing several pairs of pants from a wagon in market, but was not prosecuted on account of his extreme youthfulness. He gives his home as 66 McFarland street.

Charlie says he was with some boys who were trying to open a showcase. the other boys run off and he was caught by a boy who works there. this was at Freemans perfumery store on 4th St. He says he did not know that the other boys were trying to get the case open and when they run away he stood still

SOMEBODY'S CLAIM.

A Father Takes His Son From the Stage to the Police Station.

Last night, at Havlin's Theater, the part of one of a terrible gang of desperadoes known as the "Owls" in the sensational drama was personated by a rising young actor named Harry Walker. Before the curtain went down on the last act Harry, who is fourteen years old, but large in build, sat in one of the cold, dark cells at the Central Police Station. Opposite his name on the slate was the charge of incorrigibility, preferred by his step-father, George Walker, at 193 Barr street. Harry is one of the many youngsters of the rising generation who are carried away with trashy books and plays. Several times he has ran away from home, and once he went to Canada and stayed several months. He has quite a professional career having "suped" in several border dramas. Last evening his father learned that he was playing an engagement at Havlin's. He had not been home since last Friday, when he told his folks he was working at Hunt's Hotel. Mr. Walker found his way to the stage of the theater, and when the young Thespian caught sight of the governor he ran down under the stage and crawled into a hole. He was got out, however, and his paternal marched him to the station-house. The boy is much put out about his incarceration. He says he had good cause to leave home, as he was badly treated. His father will have him sent to the House of Refuge.

Commercial Gazette. March 26/84

Wayward Son.

Harry Walker, aged fourteen years, was taken to the Central Police Station last night, by his father, George Walker, and locked up on the charge of incorrigibility. Harry, for the past two years, has been very disobedient. About seven months ago he ran away from home and went to Canada, where he stayed nearly six months. Shortly after he was brought home he left again, and was not heard from until last night, when he was found at Havlin's Theater. He was taken to No. 193 Barr street, the home of his father, who immediately took him to the station.

Enquirer Sept. 29/84.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

An Elevator-Boy at the Dennison Does Not Care to Live.

For several weeks past Harry Walker has been acting as elevator-boy at the Dennison House, on Fifth street. He is about sixteen years of age, and was not regarded as very bright by the bell-boys and his associates about the hotel. It was remarked as a strange freak in one so young that he was disposed to melancholy, and was at times given to fits of despondency. On Friday last he appeared very gloomy, and told some of the boys that his step-father did not treat him very well, and that he did not care to live. The boys laughed at him, and did not think any more about it. At dinner he sat at the table with Alfred Barston, a bell-boy, and producing a vial filled with gilding powder, he poured an ounce or more into a cup of coffee and dared Barston to drink of the mixture, which the latter very rightly refused to do. At this Walker stirred the powder in the coffee and drank it down, saying: "There, I have poisoned myself and am going to die." The nauseating stuff caused him to retch, and he even went so far as to fill his mouth with bread to prevent vomiting. In a little while, however, he became deathly sick and evidently changed his mind about dying, for he left the hotel, returning in a short time with some powders which he said a doctor had given him. He took one of these every ten minutes for some time, and gradually grew better. Later in the afternoon the proprietors of the hotel hearing of his escapade discharged him, and he left the house. Since then nothing has been heard of him. Very little was known of him by his associates. He formerly worked at the Crawford House, and was at one time an inmate of the House of Refuge. He said that he lived on Barr street with his step-father, who was a scenic artist, but no such party could be found.

HATTIE SOUDER'S ESCORT.

The Strong Arm of the Law Separates Black and White Lovers.

Hattie Souder, a pretty girl fifteen years old, was a prisoner before Judge Fitzgerald yesterday, charged with incorrigibility. The girl's mother, a widow living on Slop street, testified against her, stating that her daughter was uncontrollable, and that she had been going with a colored man. The mother had recently ascertained that her daughter had been keeping company with the colored man for more than a year. The girl admitted it, and said the negro was always after her. She was committed to the House of Refuge, and by order of the Court Mr. Souder had issued a warrant for the arrest of the colored man, whose name is James Scott, living on State avenue. Scott will be charged with assault and battery.

Enquirer June 20/87

Joseph Juengling Ends His Life With a Clothes Line,

Deliberate Suicide of a Despondent Laborer on Canal Street Yesterday Morning.

While laboring under a fit of despondency about eleven o'clock yesterday morning Joseph Juengling, aged forty years, committed suicide by hanging himself at his home, No. 107 Canal street. In a miserably furnished apartment on the third floor of the house in question Juengling lived with his wife. Their four children were some time ago placed in the House of Refuge, where they now are. The deceased and his wife had not got along very well for some time, owing to the latter's propensity for drink and general mismanagement of the household affairs. The woman was confined in Longview Asylum for months, having only been released a few months ago. When Juengling came home with his wages last Saturday night he was

VERY MUCH EXASPERATED

To find that his better half had contracted a number of unnecessary debts. A quarrel was the result, and, in order to even up matters, he started out and got "blind, paralyzed drunk." While in this condition he was picked up by the police and locked up in Central Station as a safe-keeper for the night. Yesterday morning he was released and resumed his spree. To several persons whom he met in his round of the several saloons in the vicinity of his home he complained bitterly of his domestic trials and tribulations. Shortly before eleven o'clock he arrived home. In the absence of his wife, who had stepped into a neighbor's house, the despondent man deliberately drove a big nail into the door-frame, and, with a piece of clothes-line attached thereto and about his neck,

SHUFFLED INTO ETERNITY.

His wife discovered him in a few moments, and had he been cut down at once his life would probably have been saved. Upon noticing her suspended lord the excited woman ran downstairs and informed Raphael Heiman, the landlord, of what had transpired. Heiman, instead of cutting the would-be suicide down at once, ran over to the Babcock's Engine-House, on Vine, near Canal, and informed Captain Purcell. By the time the latter and Officers Petel and Wilmes, who had also been called in, got the hanging man cut down life was extinct, though the body was still quite warm. Every effort was made to restore animation, but to no avail. Patrol Company No. 1 was then called, and removed the remains to the Morgue.

To the Hon Board of directors of the House of Refuge

Gentn

I take the liberty to write on behalf of the bearer Mrs. Doherty whose son Alfred is in the Refuge for being one of a party of children playing ball & the ball struck a policeman.

We have long known the family as a most worthy one and the son Alfred was earning five dollars a week regularly when sent to the Refuge where he has now been three months.

I respectfully urge upon your honorable Board that the boy has been confined long enough considering the trivial nature of

as the
is an invalid being subject to fainting fits every few weeks and is not strong.

I therefore respectfully ask that his mother's petition be granted if possible

Very Respy

Police Court Paragraphs.

A thirteen-year-old boy named William Johnson was found in H. Ransick's residence, on West Fifth street, between 8 and 9 o'clock yesterday morning. He was in the act of opening a bureau drawer. A policeman was called and the boy taken to the Third Street Police Station. This morning, when asked to tell his story, the boy gave his name and age, and then said:

"I live in Toronto, Canada, with my mother, and I came here with a tight-rope walker. It was my duty to help him by sitting on his shoulders while he performed. He deserted me here, however, and yesterday morning I was searching for a lady friend of my mother, named Mrs. Reed. She lives somewhere in the vicinity of the house I entered, and I was intending to ask those people to direct me to her house."

"You are a young thief," said the Judge sternly.

The boy began to cry at this, and protested that he had meant nothing wrong, and that he was never arrested before.

The Court committed the prisoner to the House of Refuge.

A Child's Depravity.

A thirteen year old colored girl named Sallie Moore was yesterday morning taken from a den on Seventh street, near Culvert, by Patrol Company No. 2. The wayward girl's mother is a respectable woman living at No. 89 East Sixth street. Sallie has on several occasions left her home to go to the bad, and has as often been reclaimed by her mother. Last Saturday she again left. Her mother then complained to the police and the uncorrigible girl was taken in and locked up at Hammond Street Station. She will be sent to the house of refuge this morning.

This boy says that he put in his time, while living in E. Wheeling at Stealing, and is evidently a vicious, bad boy.

Jany 30 1886. At a meeting of S.C.S.C. held to-day it was ordered that the Supt notify the father of Fritz to take him home.

Feby 1. 1886. Notified by mail today.

" 5. " See letter in reply to above filed letter "A"

" 20. " By direction of Com. on S.C. — Fritz was sent to Wheeling W. Va. on 8. am train, placed on train by Mr Ed. Lemmon.

Feby 25. " Action of S.C.S.C. Approved by Board of Directors.

Kidnaped and Deserted.

Chris Albriger, 11, a bright little fellow, was this morning committed to the House of Refuge. He tells a story to the effect that two weeks ago, while hanging about the depot at East Wheeling, where he resided with his parents, a man induced him to get on the train. He then brought him to Cincinnati, where he was deserted in the depot a few minutes after his arrival. The S. P. C. A. placed him in the Children's Home until his parents could be heard from, but, having been detected in several acts of stealing the Home authorities refused to keep him, and he was accordingly sent out.

A Ten-Year-Old Devil.

Willie Gardner, whose mother lives in Riverside, was before Justice Schwab yesterday, brought there by his mother, who with tears in her eyes asked that the youth be consigned to the Refuge. He is a veritable young devil, and the woman, who looked as though she was weak from illness, could do nothing with him. He followed her through the streets and when angry would run up behind her and hammer and kick her to his heart's content, all the while laughing like a demon. When Constables Moss and Cornelius conveyed him into Schwab's office he entertained them with sundry kicks on the shins, and once inside threw over chairs, called on his Maker to witness that he doubted the maternity of every one within hearing distance, and threatened to cut the mother's throat should he ever escape. At home it was said he would sit on the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad track, and would not budge until passing trains had come to a standstill and some one came and threw him into the ditch. Major Oliver's school will do wonders for him. He was sent to the House of Refuge.

BAGGED AT LAST.

Enquirer 7/21/87

A Clever Capture by Detectives Grannan and Frazier.

About eight o'clock last night two men whose actions stamped them as officers in citizens' clothes created considerable excitement at the corner of Fifth and Smith streets. The two strangers arrested a colored man who has been lying about the neighborhood with colored prostitutes for several weeks past, but instead of taking him to the Ninth-street Station-house the two men and their prisoner boarded a John-street car. They were followed by some of the curious crowd, and never stopped until the House of Refuge was reached. Here it was learned that the prisoner was William Clark, aged nineteen, an escaped inmate of the institution, who was committed October 28, 1884, for the theft of a quantity of harness from M. F. Davrainville, a Sixth-street commission man.

Clark escaped from the institution December 12, 1885, and has enjoyed his freedom ever since. He is recognized as a desperate young thief and one of the smoothest transom workers in the business, and it was because of his eel-like proclivities that the Grannan Detective Agency, with head-quarters in the Arcade, was employed to bring him in.

The officers have been looking for him for over a year, and finally he was captured last night by Detective Jake Frazier and Captain Grannan himself.

Clark's number at the Refuge is 5,122, and his capture is no small feather in Grannan's cap. This is his second escape from the institution.

A CASTAWAY'S STORY.

Enquirer — Nov 7/84

Little Johnnie Kline Gives an Interesting Account of Himself.

John Kline, a twelve-year-old lad, is at the Central Station, and will probably be transferred to some charitable institution, unless relatives call for him. Kline tells a rather fishy story concerning himself. He is from New York City, and says he was an inmate of the Asylum for Juveniles there for over a year. About a month ago, Kline says, an official of the asylum named Wright took about one hundred boys and girls from the asylum, placed them on the train, and accompanied them to Washington City.

In the latter place ten boys and ten girls were dropped, Kline being among the number. Wright on parting with them said he hoped they would all be successful. Kline hunted for work in Washington for some time, but failing, he boarded a train last week and came to Cincinnati. Here he also failed to obtain employment, and gave himself up to the police authorities. The boy says his mother was killed by his father when he was born. His father was married again, and at the birth of the second wife's first child she, too, was killed by her husband. The latter died on Blackwell's Island two years ago. The boy's story is not believed, although he is evidently from New York, and knows all about the Juvenile Asylum there and Blackwell's Island. He claims to have brothers living in Brooklyn.

HISTORY.

John says: that the story told by him to the reporter (as per printed clipping from Enquirer) is a falsehood, the truth being, that he was sent from the Asylum to a home in Illinois, (To Caleb Martin, Salem Ills) from whom he ran away, and made his way to Lincoln,

Nov: 9th/84. — Supt. wrote letters To E. M. Carpenter, N. Y. Juvenile Asylum, and to Anthony Kline, informing them of John's presence here. —

Nov 22d/84. Letter received from Mr E. M. Carpenter, Supt N.Y. Juvenile Asylum, filed under "Letter K" Dec 26th 84. Same — filed under Letter K

See letters of Dec: 9/84 and Dec: 23/84 from E. Wright filed under Letter K. —

Dec 26th 1884 The matter of release of 5125. referred to Supt with power to act.

Janry 9th/85 Permitted to leave, Taken to train by Mr Costello, and placed on 9. P.M. train for New York City.

SERIOUS CHARGES

Com. Gazette, Oct 7 1886

MADE AGAINST DETECTIVE JOHN CUNNINGHAM.

He Is Accused of Luring a Sixteen-Year-Old Girl from Home.

Sensational Statements in Connection with the Affair.

The Girl Recovered by the Police Yesterday—What the Father of the Girl Says—The Officer's Statement.

For some time past Colonel Deitsch has been investigating a very serious charge which is made against one of the present members of the detective force. The officer in question is John Cunningham, who was taken from the Court-room and placed on the "fly" list about two months ago.

The charge is a very serious one, and it would be a good idea to give the accused a chance to defend himself before he is publicly condemned. The story as it comes to the Chief's ears is about as follows:

Mollie Monahan is a pretty sixteen-year-old Miss, whose parents reside at No. 52 Allison street. The father is an employe of the City Water-works, and is an eminently respectable citizen.

Cunningham was at one time employed as guard at the House of Refuge. While engaged in that capacity the Monahan girl was committed to the Refuge for incorrigibility. Cunningham made her acquaintance, and became very much attached to her.

In the course of time the girl was discharged from the institution, and shortly thereafter Cunningham also left. Several months ago, the story goes, Cunningham met the girl, and an intimacy at once sprang up between them. Cunningham, much against the parents' wish, visited the house, and, it is alleged, told Monahan that he was a single man. About two months ago the girl left home, and procured a situation with a family on Eighth street. Her mother, in time, found her, and took her home again.

About three weeks ago the girl again left home, and it is alleged was furnished quarters by Cunningham. The matter was reported to Chief Deitsch, and since that time the officers have been on the lookout for the girl. She was known to have made the acquaintance of several girls of her own age, whose reputations were anything but good, and they were closely watched. The girl seemed to have been suddenly swallowed up, and for a while the efforts of the officers proved futile.

Yesterday afternoon Officer Riddle, of the Central District, who had been detailed on the case, learned that a girl answering the description of the missing girl, was living in a room on Third and Central avenue. He investigated and found the girl for whom he was looking. The girl at first refused to accompany the officer, but he at last prevailed on her to go with him.

Instead of bringing her to Central Station, Officer Riddle took her direct to her home at No. 52 Allison street. A reporter, who called at the house shortly after her return, was told by her father that he wanted nothing said about the affair until to-day, when everything would be explained. He stated that the man who had ruined his daughter would be brought to justice, and from his manner he evidently meant just what he said.

Detective Cunningham was seen regarding the affair, and, while he acknowledged that he knew the girl, he insisted that nothing improper had ever occurred between them.

It is understood that the girl charges an official connected with the House of Refuge with her ruin. She is known to have told this to several parties. She also claims to be enceinte by the official. The matter is worthy of the immediate attention of the Directors of the Institution and the affair should be thoroughly and speedily ventilated. A girl who was seen by the reporter, and whose name is for the present withheld, stated that she was present and witnessed the ruin of the Monahan girl.

There is evidently something wrong in some quarter, and there will probably be some sensational developments to-day. The name of the official in question is said to be in the possession of Colonel Deitsch, and it is understood that he will take steps to-day in the matter.

Cunningham is a married man and is considered one of the brightest officers on the force. His friends are loth to believe him guilty of such base conduct.

The father of the girl has been looking for Cunningham for several days past, and has threatened to a number of persons to make it hot for the officer. He was very much excited over the affair last night, too much so to talk about it intelligently.

The facts will probably develop to-day, when the affair will be thoroughly investigated.

A GRAVE CHARGE.

A BAD GIRL'S CONTINUANCE IN SIN INVOLVES A DETECTIVE.

Story That She Was Ruined in the House of Refuge and Kept By the Officer.

A sensational story appeared in a morning paper today, connecting the name of Detective Cunningham in a scandalous manner with that of a young girl named Mollie Monaghan, in a scandalous manner.

It is stated that Cunningham became acquainted with the girl while she was an inmate of the House of Refuge, and has been criminally intimate with her since her release from that institution; that he took her from her home, at 52 Allison street, and kept her in apartments, where she could not be found for about three weeks, though diligent search was made for her by the police, until Officer Riddle discovered her in a room at Third street and Central avenue, and took her home. It was also charged that she was ruined by an official of the House of Refuge.

The Directors of the House of Refuge met this morning and determined to open a thorough investigation of the case. Chief of Police Deitch also declares that the charge is a serious one and he is going to get to the bottom of it.

Detective Cunningham did not show up for duty this morning and his whereabouts could not be discovered. He, however, was never a guard at the House of Refuge, as stated in the story about him; but he was at one time at the Workhouse.

The girl about whom all the trouble is raised is about seventeen years old. She figured in the Police Court last November in connection with a charge of rape, which she and her sister, or another girl, preferred against a young cigar maker. The accused was sentenced to the Works for six months and to pay a fine of $200, the charge being changed to assault and battery, as the girls stated he had only fooled them.

Only about two weeks passed till Mollie Monaghan and her sister Tillie, and a companion, named Lena Weuholt, were arrested for running around the streets and general misconduct. These cases were investigated on November 28, and the evidence showed that they were girls of bad character. Sentence was deferred till December 1, when they were committed to the House of Refuge.

While they lay in jail their conduct and language was disgusting.

About two months ago the Monaghan girls were discharged from the House of Refuge on representations of their father, a ward politician, that one was of age. He backed up his request by a long petition signed by Governor Foraker and many of the prominent politicians of the city. The younger sister, Mollie, was only released on parole.

A Fifty-Year-Old Wife Goes Wildly Astray.

For a long time past Frederick Wenholt, a well-to-do and respectable carpenter, residing at No. 43 McMicken avenue, has suspected his wife of being criminally intimate with William Schilling, a coachman employed by Charles Moser, of No. 438 Broadway. Saturday afternoon she left her home, telling her servant she was going to market and would return shortly. When she did not return by midnight the husband, suspecting that he would find her at the Moser residence, went there, in company with a policeman.

The matter was explained to Mr. Moser who answered the door, and the trio went to the room occupied by Schilling. A hasty search of the room showed that the recreant wife was not there, and they were about to give up the search when the husband saw the clothing of his wife laying upon the floor. The search was extended to the stable, and there, crouched beneath a pile of hay, with nothing to cover her nakedness, the guilty wife was found. She was ordered to dress, and both she and her paramour were taken to Bremen street station and locked up on the charge of adultery.

Schilling is a man of fifty-three years of age, and has a wife and children living in Cumminsville, but seldom visits them. Mrs. Wenholt was a widow with two children when she was married. Both parties were arraigned in the Police court this morning, and at their request the cases were continued to June 10. Wenholt declares that he will prosecute both of them to the bitter end.

comfort to his grandmother.

On Saturday afternoon, June 19, Gay, his brother Willie and a playmate or two, went bathing on the Dayton sand-bar on the Ohio river. While enjoying their sport, Gay through an attack of cramp or in some other way lost control of himself and was drowned. The river was searched for the body Saturday afternoon and night and all day Sunday to no purpose. On Monday a telegram came saying that the body had been found at Aurora, Indiana.

The sudden and shocking death of Gay fell upon the grandmother after all of her other troubles as a terrible blow. She was almost alone, her remaining daughter and son-in-law being in California. A few friends arranged for the return of the body and for the funeral. Gay's schoolmates attended in a body and the services were of a most touching character.

Gay was a noble boy in whose veins flowed the blood of a heroic father. Bright, intelligent, and winning, devoted to his studies, ambitious to excel, loyal and loving to his grandmother, teachers, and friends he gave great promise for the future and the officers of the Society took great pride in having had a part in rescuing him from the evil associations of his innocent young life and securing for him the opportunities for improvement and usefulness.

It is very sad to see him cut off in the midst of his promising youth. But who knows but that the turgid swirling torrent of the Ohio has saved him being swept to eternal destruction by the deeper and darker currents of iniquity and death which overflow the pathway of every boy and young man. The early death of promising youth is not by any means the saddest feature of human experience.

A SCHOOLBOY DROWNED.

Little Gay McDonald Sinks from Off the Dayton Sand Bar.

Little Gay McDonald, a twelve-year-old schoolboy, who is well and favorably known in the vicinity of Longworth and Race streets, where he lived, was drowned on the Dayton sand-bar yesterday afternoon while in swimming with his brother and another companion.

The little chap, who was but twelve years old, lived with his grandmother, Mrs. Curtis, at No. 21 Longworth street, and yesterday afternoon he left, in company with his young brother and another companion, to go to the Dayton sand-bar for a swim. He had been in the water but a short while when he became cramped, and drowned before assistance could reach him.

Search was almost immediately begun for his body, but up to a late hour last night it had not been recovered.

LITTLE GAY M'DONALD.

The Little Twelve-Year-Old Man Who Would Protect His Grandma.

Little Gay McDonald lay in his coffin at 21 Longworth street this morning, and many were the calls by his comrades to ask permission to see his face once more.

Gay was drowned in the Ohio River at the Bellevue sand bar last Saturday afternoon while in swimming with his brother Willie and Wellington Morton. The little fellow got beyond his depth and was drowned. Word came yesterday morning that his body had been found at Aurora, Ind., and Mr. Harry Hughes went down and identified him. The body was shipped to Cincinnati this morning, and arrived at about 9 o'clock.

There is a mistake about him that has greatly distressed his grandmother, with whom the two boys live, and that is the statement in some of the papers that his name was Guy Fenton, and that he is a relative of Dan. Fenton, the variety actor. Gay was the manly little fellow who shot at a supposed burglar, and declared to Judge Fitzgerald that there had been many robberies near their home, and that when he shot he thought that some one was robbing the house and that he was going to protect his grandma.

He was only twelve years old, but was a very bright boy and had a host of friends.

His funeral took place this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

A SAD EVENT.

Gay McDonald Drowned in the Ohio River.

One day in October 1884, a lady evidently under some distress of mind came into the office of the Society and told the Superintendent a story of which the following is a brief synopsis. After speaking of the original residence of herself and family in New Orleans where they lost their property and she lost her husband she gave the circumstances of their residence in various other cities until they reached Cincinnati. She had had two daughters, both of whom had married, one of them in 1870 to a telegraph operator named J. W. McDonald. With this daughter she had resided since her marriage. Mr. McDonald was at work in the Western Union telegraph office in this city at the time of the Yellow Fever outbreak at Memphis, and when the call came for telegraph operators to go to that stricken city, he was the first to volunteer. He went to Memphis and remained bravely at his assumed post of duty, until one day he was stricken with the fever and in twenty-four hours was dead. He left three children, Willie, Gay and Baby Millie. His death completely cut off the income for the support of the family. Sometime afterwards the mother, who had some vocal talent, joined an amateur opera company for a short tour in the hope of making something for herself and children. Having encouraging success in this, she made another engagement, and thus drifted on the stage. Finding it a hardship to be separated from her children, she took the two youngest, Baby and Gay with her, and left the oldest, Willie, with his grandmother. She traveled about the country with the company, and finally fell in with a variety actor who it seems soon afterwards inveigled her into a bogus marriage. After this they traveled together.

As the children grew older they began to pick up bits of songs and dances and other theatrical business, and soon the mother, the two children and the man began to appear together as the "Fenton Family." They drifted about over the northern and western part of the country appearing in various theaters, until the summer of 1884 found them in Wyoming Territory, traveling about in a wagon from mining camp to mining camp giving entertainments. At Buffalo, Wyoming, the mother whose health had been failing for some time, broke down completely and shortly after died. It has been thought that her death was caused in large measure by rough usage and ill-treatment. After her death the man Fenton gathered together their few effects and brought the children to the grandmother in Cincinnati, claiming to her that he had brought them for the purpose of turning them over to her care. After a week's time, however, under the pretense that his people who live at Cohoes New York, having heard so much of the children, felt a great interest in them and desired to see them, he begged permission to take them there for a two weeks' visit, after which he would return them to the grandmother. She gave her consent and he took them away. At the end of the two weeks he failed to return, and she discovered that he was arranging to place them upon the stage. The children had so grown and had such unusual talent, that their services were worth at this time from $75 to $100 per week. Believing that it was not Fenton's purpose to return the children to her care, and knowing him to be an unfit person to have them in custody, she had come to appeal to the Society to assist her in getting possession of them.

The Superintendent wrote at once to Superintendent Jenkins of the New York S. P. C. C. advising him of the particulars and asking his assistance in securing the return of the children. The local agent of the New York Society at Cohoes was put upon the case and pressed Fenton so closely that he made haste to depart with the children to Cincinnati. Immediately upon his arrival here, word was sent to the office of the Society, and Fenton, the grandmother, and the children were taken before the Probate Court, where the grandmother was appointed guardian of the three children. Fenton opposed this action vigorously and remained about the city for some time. Fearing arrest for kidnaping if he should deliberately take the children away he undertook to persuade the boy Gay, to run away and join him. The boy had known no other than the nomadic life of an actor, and had been with Fenton from his earliest recollection. It was feared therefore that Fenton might succeed in persuading him to go wtth him. Under the advice of the officers of the Society the grandmother had Gay committed to the House of Refuge, after which Fenton finding he could do nothing left the city. Gay after being under restraint for a short time and having school opportunities afforded him began to grow disgusted with his old life and formed a great attachment for his grandmother and new found friends. In a short time he was released from the House of Refuge, and joined his sister in the Ninth District school where he soon took high rank among the scholars. Since that time both the children have made most excellent records and have won many friends. During the past year Gay stood at the head of his clsss, and Principal Flinn pronounces him the banner boy of the school. He was growing rapidly and promised soon to become a great help as well as a comfort to his grandmother.

On Saturday afternoon, June 19, Gay, his brother Willie and a playmate or two, went bathing on the Dayton sand-bar on the Ohio river. While enjoying their sport, Gay through an attack of cramp or in some other way lost control of himself and was drowned. The river was searched for the body Saturday afternoon and night and all day Sunday to no purpose. On Monday a telegram came saying that the body had been found at Aurora, Indiana.

Wants It Corrected.

CINCINNATI, O., January 21, 1885.

To the Editor of the Times-Star:

DEAR SIR—I noticed an artical in your paper of the 19th inst about a sirtain woman by the name of Mrs Rieman as being well known in police circles. This is untrue and I would like to have it corrected as she was never before the police court whatever and if the father of the three children that was taken from her had helped to take care of them instead of spending his money this case would not have happened

Yours Respectfully

An interested Party.

HISTORY.

Janu 19th 1885. Maj. Henry Oliver.

Supt House of Refuge.

Dear Sir: — I furnish you memorandum as follows concerning the Rieman children, George 12. Harry 7 Willie 5. taken to you today by Agent Herron on Commitment from Justice Lowrey. — The father is a dissolute character, having been in the Workhouse several times. His wife says she has not seen him for a year and a half. She is no good at all. Children have been in Childrens Home several times, We have had trouble with them ever since April last. The mother has suspended sentence over her in Police court for drunkenness She drinks all the time. Sold the coal received from City authorities and spent the money for drink, Sends children out to beg and takes the money they get for drink. — Lives in a single squalid basement room on Little Court St. North side 4 doors west of Harrick frame house. Takes men in her room with the children and keeps them over night.

Respectfully

Oscar F. Bodhunter

Secy S.P.C.A.

February 12th 1885. Sent in care of Ed. Lemmon, to be placed by Mr Baker, in Mt Auburn Orphan Asylum. – Mr Robt Lemmon reports that the clothes worn by the children when admitted were so ragged and dirty that they had to be burned – new suits were furnished each of them, by the Institution

Aug 26. 1886. The father & mother of the Lemmon children came before the Board of Directors to-day, & requested that the children be released from the Asylum to their care. – Declined

HIT BY HIS FATHER.

Enquirer — Oct 3d/87

Drunken Tom Jennings Strikes His Son With a Poker.

Thomas Jennings, a maltster, forty-five years old, lives 157 West Front street. He drank considerably yesterday, and about 10 p. m. told his fourteen-year-old son to go for a bucket of beer. While the boy was dressing Jennings asked him where he had been all day. Receiving no answer the father seized a poker and hit his son on the left side of the head, making a gash two inches long. Officer Farrell was called and took Jennings to Central Station. The boy was removed to the hospital. The father is employed at Nelson Perin's malt-house, on Front street. He is charged with assault and battery.

Com Gaz PITIABLY POOR. Feby 17/85

Story of a Wretched Family Without Means and Without Employment.

Last Thursday a man, with his wife and daughter, appeared at the central office of the Associated Charities and informed those in charge that if a telegram were sent to Colonel Telford Fry, at Louisville, informing him of the condition of the applicants, he would certainly forward them money, as he was an uncle of the man. Those in charge heard the story in good faith and took immediate steps to ascertain something in regard to the uncle, as he was reported to be very rich.

A letter was sent to the Falls City asking the authorities to hunt up Colonel Fry. In the meantime, the man, who gave his name as Robert Fry, and his wife and daughter were sent to Hammond Street Police Station. They were wretchedly clad, and looked as if they had not eaten anything for a long time.

A letter was received yesterday from Louisville stating that there was no Colonel Telford Fry in that city, and none of the other Frys knew anything about the Frys in Cincinnati.

They were then taken to the Central Police Station by Officer Jos. Smith, the father and mother being locked up on the charge of vagrancy, and the girl Matilda, aged eleven years, as a homeless child. After being locked up they stated that for over a year past they had been on the poor farm at Palestine, O. They had started down the river in a shanty boat a few days ago, but last Tuesday it sank, and it was as much as they could do to save their lives. They are very coarse looking, and evidently used to hardships.

Mr Henry Oliver

Dear Sir

As stated before, I believe Theodore understands that even a few years must not be taken against the will of the owner, or without his permission; and we have had an illustration since of how quick the seeds of wrong grow and bear fruit, in that one of the little boys, possibly at least, encouraged by "forbidden fruit" stole some money at home, and squandered it.

Please impress on Theodore the importance of keeping quite straight, he is just the boy to be caught in a little wrong, and to go on rapidly from worse to worse. Yours truly

Jno Valentine

I am glad to say, that on the whole, Theodore has done well, and I am sure will do well hereafter.

Cairo Ills June 9th 1885

Mr Henry Oliver,
Supt House of Refuge
Cincinnati, Ohio, — Dear Sir:

Your letter of 5th inst duly received. August Cooper is a wayward bad boy, and it will be well for him and his relatives if he could be placed in some institution for confinement & training. His Mother & sister live here and on finding them, they Stated that they could do nothing with the boy. And that Some time in April last his Mother took him to Renaus Station about 40 miles N.E. of St Louis and left him with an uncle, And it was from there that he escaped.

The Mother and sister of the boy have asked me whether he could be retained where he now is, or placed where he could be trained and subdued, please answer.

Respectfully

Times Star —— June 9th 85

A pale-faced, thin-looking boy walked up and nodded assent when the name of Andrew Hale was called.

"What is this young man charged with?" inquired His Honor.

"He is charged with the crime of rising early in the morning just at the break of day and with malicious intent ——"

"Who did he murder?" asked His Honor.

"Nobody at all," answered the interrupted Prosecutor, and continued: "He silently stole along until he reached a palatial mansion on Gilbert avenue when he crawled up the steps and ——

"Broke in I'll bet."

"No, he stole, he actually stole the morning paper?"

"What! Horrible! Stole a paper? What one?"

"The Enquirer, Your Honor."

"Thirty days in the House of Refuge. Any boy who will steal an Enquirer is lost —hopelessly lost," and His Honor shed tears for the unfortunate boy whose depth of depravity had been laid bare.

Sept 7/85

"We comed all de way from Chercogo," explained one of two little colored boys who had given themselves up at the station house as homeless. "Our father driv us away from home, and some white man paid our way to dis city."

The boys, whose names were Sam. and Eugene Clark, were committed to the House of Refuge.

In disposing of the case, Judge Fitzgerald said: "This seems to be an old trick of Chicago in turning her homeless paupers over to Cincinnati. I want the Refuge authorities to send word to the Chicago institution and have these boys taken back to their old home."
