Hi.

I have previously had verbal permission from you to use diagrams from Victory City (<http://www.victorycities.com>). You may recall that I am Dave MacQuarrie, a retired psychotherapist then doing a Ph.D. in Wisdom Studies, researching Acedia and its Transformation, acedia being the patterns of avoidance of our species.

I now wish to publish my dissertation as a book Acedia: The Darkness Within (and the darkness of Climate Change), self-published with AuthorHouse. As part of the book, I wish to use the aerial view of Victory City (<http://www.victorycities.com/tour/1-thumb.html>).

If you could provide email (dave@aplacetwobe.com), fax (705-434-9068), or mail confirmation of acceptance, I would most appreciate your attention.

Thank you,

Dave MacQuarrie, MD.
