Dear Mr. Cycenas:

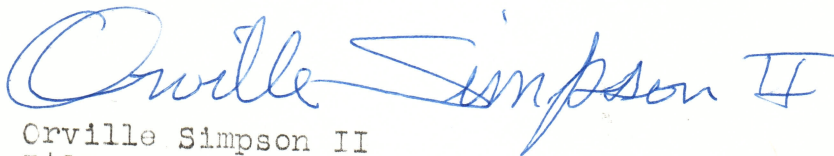

When I met Paul Huffer in person, he told me that your museum was planning a 3 year construction and expansion program to include exhibits of future city concepts. What is the status now of this program?

Since he returned the box full of materials, listed under "enclosures" in my letter to him, would you like for me to send you another box with similar contents?

The enclosed picture is of a Victory City with a population of 262,000. The tallest buildings are 102 floors high and the city is almost $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles long.

I am looking forward to hear from you.

Sincerely,

Orville Simpson II
