

Data Set – Submitted 11/2020

Study: How ‘special needs’ vouchers silence and deny the right to inclusive education (LRE): Segregation by choice or fraudulent concealment?

Authors: Fitch, E.F., Hulgin, K.H, Coomer, M.N.

The following data represent privately operated, disability only schools in Ohio, Georgia and Florida which serve relatively high numbers of students through state funded special education vouchers.

Ohio
Jon Peterson Special Needs Scholarship Program Schools/services w/high enrollment	A Students with disabilities as percentage of school enrollment (Verified by ODE)	B IDEA or ADA referenced in school website or letter	C Inclusion or LRE referenced in school website or letter	D Parent signature requirement to waive IDEA referenced by school or letter
Marburn Academy	100%	No	No	No
Springer School & Center	100%	No	Yes “so called inclusion”	No
Lawrence School-Upper School Campus	100%	No	No	No
Lawrence School	100%	No	No	No
Haugland Learning Center	100%	No	No	No
Center for Autism and Dyslexia	100%	No	No	No
ACLD Learning Center	100%	No	No	No
Bridgeway Academy Education Center	100%	No	No	No

Georgia
Special Needs Scholarship (GSNS) scholarship Schools/services w/high enrollment	A Students with disabilities as percentage of school	B IDEA or ADA referenced in school website	C Inclusion or LRE referenced in school website	D Parent signature requirement to waive

	enrollment (Verified by phone or website)	or letter	or letter	IDEA referenced by school or letter
The Bedford School	100%	No	No	No
Cumberland Academy of Georgia	100%	No	No	No
MDE School	100%	No	No	No
The Hirsch Academy	100%	No	No	No
Mill Springs Academy	100%	No	No	No
The Lionheart School	100%	No	No	No
Special Needs Schools of Gwinnett	100%	No	No	No
The Joseph Sams School	100%	No	No	No

Florida
Florida: The McKay Scholarships for Students with Disabilities Program Schools/services w/high enrollment	A Students with disabilities as percentage of school enrollment (verified by phone or website)	B IDEA or ADA referenced in school website or letter	C Inclusion IDEA or LRE referenced in school website or letter	D Parent signature requirement to waive IDEA referenced by school or letter
North Florida School of Special Education	100%	No	No	No
The Vanguard School	100%	No	No	No
Brucie Ball Educational Center	100%	No	No	No
Escambia Westgate Center	100%	No	No	No
Pepin Academies	100%	No	No	No
Royal Palm Exceptional School Center	100%	No	No	No
UCP East Charter	100%	No	No	No