

Your Role in Scholar@UC : _____
Your Name: _____

1. An approval/mediation mechanism shall be added to Scholar@UC. For example, a student's work is not made public until a faculty sponsor approves the work.
 - a. Valuable and of high priority
 - b. Neutral
 - c. Not valuable or of low priority
 - d. Already exists
 - e. Do not understand

2. The new role of 'Discoverer' shall be added. Discoverer is an agent (a person or a software function) that actively crawls places like Google Scholar and NIH PubMed to bring back UC works to Scholar@UC.
 - a. Valuable and of high priority
 - b. Neutral
 - c. Not valuable or of low priority
 - d. Already exists
 - e. Do not understand

3. New role of Software Developer shall be added. A sample user story could be: "As a developer, I want to achieve usability, So that Scholar@UC is easy to learn and easy to use."
 - a. Valuable and of high priority
 - b. Neutral
 - c. Not valuable or of low priority
 - d. Already exists
 - e. Do not understand

4. A security check for newly uploaded files with anti-virus scanning shall be added to Scholar@UC.
 - a. Valuable and of high priority
 - b. Neutral
 - c. Not valuable or of low priority
 - d. Already exists
 - e. Do not understand

5. "To validate data quality" shall be added to Scholar@UC. For example, if a work's subject is problematic by having semi-colons, then Scholar@UC shall alert the metadata librarian. Another example would be an image with low resolution.
 - a. Valuable and of high priority

- b. Neutral
 - c. Not valuable or of low priority
 - d. Already exists
 - e. Do not understand
6. A usage statistics of the works shall be maintained and reported back to the content contributors.
- a. Valuable and of high priority
 - b. Neutral
 - c. Not valuable or of low priority
 - d. Already exists
 - e. Do not understand
7. A finer-grained user classification shall be defined to distinguish different and unique responsibilities among faculty, delegate, student, grad school, and so on.
- a. Valuable and of high priority
 - b. Neutral
 - c. Not valuable or of low priority
 - d. Already exists
 - e. Do not understand
8. A new requirement "monitor new content" (e.g., receiving RSS feed) shall be added.
- a. Valuable and of high priority
 - b. Neutral
 - c. Not valuable or of low priority
 - d. Already exists
 - e. Do not understand
9. User's search information shall be stored for future reference such as auto-completion.
- a. Valuable and of high priority
 - b. Neutral
 - c. Not valuable or of low priority
 - d. Already exists
 - e. Do not understand
10. Uploading new contents by drag/drop facility instead of browsing. Such a drag/drop to upload feature can be found in Box and Dropbox.
- a. Valuable and of high priority
 - b. Neutral
 - c. Not valuable or of low priority
 - d. Already exists
 - e. Do not understand

11. User shall view works (e.g., images, videos) inside the browser, instead of downloading them.

- a. Valuable and of high priority
- b. Neutral
- c. Not valuable or of low priority
- d. Already exists
- e. Do not understand

12. Unwanted files shall be managed in order to control the repository size.

- a. Valuable and of high priority
- b. Neutral
- c. Not valuable or of low priority
- d. Already exists
- e. Do not understand

13. Server has enough storage to sustain the data.

- a. Valuable and of high priority
- b. Neutral
- c. Not valuable or of low priority
- d. Already exists
- e. Do not understand
- f.

14. Server can recover from data corruption and outrages.

- a. Valuable and of high priority
- b. Neutral
- c. Not valuable or of low priority
- d. Already exists
- e. Do not understand